Wonderland

Welcome to our pilot online exhibition. I have decided to start series of our online Art Exhibitions with my own works.

The name of current exhibition “Wonderland” is not a spontaneous choice. During the second lockdown I began daily acrylic pouring paintings. Acrylic pouring technique has a lot of mystery in it. The process from the moment of pouring till the paint gets dry resembles with “Wonderland”, one sees the transformation which to some extent is out of his/her control.

Daily acrylic pouring is a way of keeping positivity in those not easy times that we all are going through and it also became a form of relaxation, meditation and self-expression.

Enjoy your visit!
